Reading syllables, then words

You now know the letters and the marks. Let’s put them together: read syllable by syllable, then the whole word, right to left.

You now know the letters and the marks. Let's put them together: read syllable by syllable, then the whole word, right to left.

Learn

Final test

See also

Long vowels: ā, ī, ū

Previous

The Arabic alphabet: all 28 letters

Surah Al-Ikhlas: Arabic text and audio