Short vowels: fatha, kasra, damma

In Arabic, letters are consonants. To know which sound follows the letter, small marks are added: the vowels. There are three short ones.

In Arabic, letters are consonants. To know which sound follows the letter, small marks are added: the vowels. There are three short ones.

Learn

Next lesson

See also

Test: vowels and marks (20 questions)

The Arabic alphabet: all 28 letters

Surah Al-Ikhlas: Arabic text and audio